

HER LEGAL AIMS ARE HIGH.

Miss Melle Stanleyetta Titus Wants to Practise in Department No. 1 of the Supreme Court.

Presiding Justice Van Brunt, of the Supreme Court, decided yesterday that the papers submitted by Miss Melle Stanleyetta Titus on an appeal for permission to come up at the bar examination on May 19 were perfectly correct and in accordance with the regulations, so he granted the young woman the desired permission, and she will take her chances with the usual spring crop of young men for admission to practise as an attorney and counselor at law in Department No. 1 of the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

MISS MELLE STANLEYETTA TITUS.

Miss Titus is the first of her sex to get as far as this. Belva Lockwood asked for permission five years ago, and Miss Katherine Hogan applied a year ago, but the Justices found flaws in the papers they presented, and neither one gained the right to come up for examination. Belva Lockwood went to Washington, and is now practising there, and Miss Hogan went to Brooklyn and secured admission to the Second Department.

Miss Titus means to stick at the First Department. If she should fail to pass the examinations a week from next Saturday, she will simply wait until next year and try again. She is in no hurry, because she does not intend to practise until her brother, now in the junior class at the New York University Law School, becomes a licensed practitioner. They officers then go into partnership as Titus & Titus.

Miss Titus is a startling surprise to the upholders of the "seamy side" stock-ing theory. She is a very pretty girl, and her Quaker antecedents, although they make her affirm instead of taking an oath, do not prevent her from being as stylishly gowned as any society woman. She graduated from the Normal College with honors in 1890, and then attended the law lectures of Miss Emily Compson at the University. She entered the regular classes in 1891, and in her junior year won the prize for scholarship. She was all eight weeks in her senior year, but graduated No. 4 in her class. For three years she has been a law clerk in the office of the Hon. Hildreth, No. 280 Broadway. That gentleman, gladly signing her application papers, said yesterday that he had not the slightest doubt of her passing with honors.

"She has a splendid analytical mind," said he, "and she will make many of her male competitors look to their laurels."

Miss Titus has a chair in a female law school offered to her by the State. She will practise in real-estate law first.

HEBER NEWTON'S DAUGHTER TO WED.

William Wells Bosworth, the Bridgeman, is Rev. Dr. Huntington's Nephew.

There is a great deal of preliminary interest in the wedding to-day of Elizabeth Lewis Newton and William Wells Bosworth, formerly of Boston. The bride is a daughter of one of the most noted preachers of the day, Rev. H. Heber Newton, and the bridegroom, who belongs to a well-known Boston family, is the nephew of Rev. Dr. Huntington, rector of Grace Church.

The marriage takes place at All Souls' Church, Madison Avenue and Sixty-sixth Street, at 5 P. M. to-day. The bridal couple, and the church decorations, done entirely in palms and Acacia, will be in the mediaeval style, and were designed by the bride's brother, Mr. Richard Newton, jr. The bride will look like a lovely figure from a golden background and a gothic gilded frame. Her gown will be of white crepe, with delicate traceries of golden embroidery over it. The chiffon veil she will wear will fall straight on either side of the hair from the gold band across the front of her coiffure to the ground. She will carry a stick of Ascension lilies.

The bridesmaids will also be attired in severely mediaeval style in pale green crepe embroidered in silver. The bridesmaids are Misses Louise Hubbell, Sophie Downer, Clara Bosworth, and Misses Mary and Helen Huntington. The bridesmaids' coronets will be the vestals who will attend. Mr. Jack Ames, of Boston, will be the best man, and the best man, John D. Huntington, Jr., of New York, will be the ushers. The bride's father, Rev. H. Heber Newton, D. D., will perform the ceremony, and be assisted by Rev. William Kirkus, of Baltimore, and Rev. Dr. Henshaw.

The music will be choral and unusually fine. A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow.

J. T. RICHARDS CONVICTED.

Pound Guilty of Assaulting Mr. Brooks, in Greenville, Nov. 18.

John T. Richards, the lawyer who was indicted with John Bull, of Bayonne, for assaulting Homer Brooks, of Greenville, on the evening of Nov. 18, was convicted in the court of General Sessions, Jersey City, yesterday. John Bull, who aided Richards in the assault, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the State Prison for one year. Richards was released on bail for sentence. The story of the assault, when first published, caused considerable excitement in Greenville and Bayonne.

Mr. Brooks testified that on his way home in the train he became involved in an argument with two strangers. Suddenly blows were struck, and as the train stopped at the Danforth Avenue station his two assailants got off the car and beat him. He was confined to his room nearly a month.

Counselor Collins, who appeared for Mr. Richards, called William T. Hornblower, who was nominated by President Cleveland as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. Mr. Hornblower testified to the good character of Mr. Richards. Other witnesses gave similar testimony. Mr. Richards testified that he returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault.

THIS MODERN PRISCIILLA IS FAST.

Newest and Finest of the Fall River Fleet, She Flies on Her Trial Trip.

The new side-wheel steamer Priscilla, the latest addition to the fleet of the Fall River line, had her trial trip yesterday. There were about one thousand persons aboard when the vessel left pier. She steamed up the North River as far as Fort Washington, and then turning proceeded down the bay and out around the Sandy Hook Lightship. On the trip she made a speed of about twenty knots an hour.

At Newport the vessel will be fitted out with cabin appointments, carpets, bedding, linen, and the other requirements of a living hotel. The vessel is owned by the Fletcher Iron Works at Hobeoken, where the guest is disembarked. The Priscilla is the largest side-wheel steamer of the line, and is 20 feet longer than the Puritan, and 420 feet. The Priscilla cost $1,500,000.
